WAVE

An Organisation Built on Trust

Wave Group - a leading business conglomerate that has expanded across industries to create a niche for itself. The integral beliefs of the Group are founded on hard work and team spirit. It has been steered by the long term vision of the Late Mr. Kulwant Singh Chadha since 1963. Today, the Wave Group boasts of an impressive portfolio of businesses, including sugar manufacturing, distilleries & breweries, real estate, malls and multiplexes, beverages, sports, education and entertainment.

Wave Group's policy has been to efficiently and effectively optimize its diverse businesses and maximize output by participating in all aspects of business. This has resulted in exponential growth in the Group's productivity, its ability to transform industries and in creating opportunities for entirely new market segments. The business model has evolved significantly through strategic investments in services and technologies, ensuring that the Wave Group maintains its competitive advantage in every sector.

The Wave Group attributes a major part of its success to its visionary, the erstwhile Chairman Mr. Gurdeep Singh (Ponty) Chadha. His pioneering vision to conquer new heights and fulfil the dreams of all its stakeholders is the key to driving the Group to continuously set new benchmarks.

WAVE Infratech

Quality is the Hallmark of our Construction

A decade ago, Wave Infratech was established as the real estate arm of the Wave Group. Since then it has evolved into one of the leading players in the real estate sector and is envisioned to soon become one of the largest real estate developers in the country. It is building outstanding integrated townships such as Wave City, Wave City Center, Wave Estate and Wave Royal Castle in addition to its ground breaking commercial projects Wave One, Wave 1st Silver Tower and Wave Hubb.

Wave Infratech is widely acknowledged for its futuristic and extraordinary real estate projects. It is introducing India to the Smart City Concept in association with IBM – the global leader for smart technology. Besides these impressive residential ventures, Wave Infratech's portfolio also includes a host of Wave Malls & Wave Cinemas and is scaling new heights and revolutionizing city skylines across India.
